Cancellations/Refund Policy

Participants who cancel their attendance at one of our workshops will be refunded their fee minus a $25.00 transaction fee. Cancellations within 24 hours of the event do not qualify for a refund, however each situation will be assessed individually by the team. Participants can request to credit their full fee towards future workshops.

Cancellations of workshops due to extreme weather or other unanticipated situations will be refunded in full or may be credited towards future workshops at the participant's choice.

Important Note: Safety is a primary concern. Consuming alcohol or mind-altering substances prior to or during one of our events is not permitted. Nudity, sexual activities or provocative interactions with other participants or with staff, and any disruptive or violent behavior will not be permitted. Facilitators can refuse admission to any participant they feel might be negatively affected by substances, and they can remove any participant from the workshop who they believe might be a safety risk to themselves or others. Individuals with contagious medical conditions or infections are encouraged to not register at this time.

By signing below, you agree to all of the above policies.
